I got the Subsidy!

3 days ago I hadn't even heard about these subsidies. Some of the ads about them seemed so sketchy. But it's actually real, and I physically received my package.

My benefits were $5000

It's honestly the first time I've had a fridge this full all year. I'm glad the people we voted for finally are doing something for us though. The extra cash I got will go a long way.
