

medication.

4. The state reports emergency funds that typically cover a response like the measles outbreak are not available from the federal government right now. There are not funds coming to the region from the federal or state government to mount an emergency response. All costs are being borne by the city and by local and regional hospitals.

I'll send this on to [REDACTED] and Health and Humans Services shortly.

Jeffrey J. Hill, PT, MPT, MBA, FACHE
Senior Vice President Support Services and Government Relations
UMC Health System
Lubbock, TX 79424
[REDACTED]

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE This message and any included attachments are from UMC Health System and are intended only for the addressee. The information contained in this message is confidential and may constitute inside or non-public information under international, federal, or state securities laws. Unauthorized forwarding, printing, copying, distribution, or use of such information is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you are not the addressee, please promptly delete this message and notify the sender of the delivery error by e-mail or you may call UMC Health System in Lubbock, Texas, U.S.A at (+1) (806) 775-8200.

The source for hospital continuing education:

www.tha.org/EduCal

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: The information transmitted in this email and its attachment(s), is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of, or taking any action in reliance upon this information by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you receive this email in error, please contact the sender and delete the material from any computer.